

Open Road™

A COMMUNITY OF LEADERS

The space to drive your own development.

Your leaders want room to grow as individuals while simultaneously leading strategic initiatives, managing competing priorities, and navigating rapidly shifting business environments. You want to give them space to learn and grow, but have challenges balancing time, effort, and investment. We created Open Road to give your leaders that space. Now there is real-time, on-demand access to a community of other leaders and what they are doing to solve today's challenges. Add our team of experienced pLink Leadership coaches, and they've got a talented navigator riding shotgun!

Open Road community members will:

- Tap into practical know-how and wisdom, just in time
- Have access to pLink Leadership coaches and courses
- Gain valuable perspective on current issues
- Take accountability for their leadership development
- Feel connected and supported
